What can you expect from us?

*
Our course modules and mentoring will always be tailored to be what's best for you. That does not mean we will agree always. That also does not mean that we will give everyone what they ask for. It means that we will do everything possible to keep our motives pure and put your interest first.

WHAT DO WE EXPECT FROM YOU?

YOU MUST GROW NOT JUST LEARN

We expect you to remain attentive, take notes, complete assignments, and learn. Just engaging intellect isn't enough. We intend to see you grow. Applying the lessons in life is the only way to take charge of your growth. We want you to commit one hour for daily meditation and average 45 to 60 mins of daily learning (studying recordings, assignments)

YOU MUST COME READY

We would like you to set clear goals regarding the issues you are facing and what are your objective. At first, clearly define the highest levels and assess your current level of each aspect (as mentioned in the table below) according to your understanding. We will help you to redefine and expand all the definitions in the first 2 weeks of the course. Then we will help you to heal and grow in the following aspects of your life.

YOU MUST KEEP EARNING OUR TIME

Prepare your questions well in advance, participate in group discussions, keep making progress and you will keep getting our best mentoring efforts. You give your best to deserve our best.

How I am so Sure?

In early 2009, I retired from my career at the age of 32 to find the answers to existential questions like why I am here and what is my highest potential. I devoted my life to spiritual sadhana-meditations and participated in several healing and transformational workshops.

I have developed and designed such an extensive and comprehensive program from my personal spiritual experiences of over 14 years; the wisdom gained through the practical implementation of over 3500 books, thousands of hours of intense meditation and experience of mentoring thousands to spiritual enlightenment. This makes me so sure of the results that you'll gain from this Program.

Allow me to be your personal life coach and lead you to the life you desire, inner peace and enlightenment. Choose your dream life. Join NOW.
